I. RENTAL SCORING

Westgate relies upon "Rental Scores" to estimate the relative financial risk of leasing an apartment to you. Westgate uses the screening company CoreLogic to screen all applicants. In addition to estimating risk, rental scores are an objective and consistent way of reviewing relevant application information, and help speed the application approval process.

Any applicant with a score of 500 and above is approved, and any applicant with a score of 335-499 is conditionally approved which requires the applicant to pay a higher deposit or obtain a Co-Signer.

Please Note: Other factors may be considered which would affect the final decision including negative housing, unreported or false information provided on the application.

A Co-Signer may be used to assist an applicant in qualifying. A Co-Signer with a score of 500 and above is approved. Total monthly rent shall not be greater than or equal to 40% of applicant's monthly income. Co-Signer approval requires $500 refundable security deposit (SureDeposit Surety Bond is not applicable with a Co-Signer.) Cannot currently be Co-Signing for any other Westgate resident. Current residents applying to Co-Sign cannot have any court action and no more than 25% delinquency rate.

How is my rental score determined?

Rental scoring systems assign points to certain factors identified as having statistical correlation to future financial lease performance. Your rental score results from a mathematical analysis of information found in your credit report, application, and previous rental history. Such information may include your bill-paying history, the number and type of accounts you have, collection actions, outstanding debt, income, and the number of inquiries in your consumer report. The final number, or rental score, represents an estimated level of risk as compared to the performance of other consumers in a range of scores.

Because your rental score is based upon real data and statistics, it is more reliable than subjective methods of evaluating your information. Rental scoring treats all applicants consistently and impartially. Additionally, your rental score never uses certain characteristics like – race, color, sex, familial status, handicap, national origin, or religion – as factors.

Where can I have my score explained?

Should your application be denied based upon your rental score, you can learn which factors most negatively influenced your score by contacting the consumer reporting agency listed below. Additionally, you can obtain a free copy of your consumer report, if you make the request to the consumer reporting agency within 60 days of the denial.

III. CRIMINAL HISTORY

Any applicant, including applications submitted by a spouse or by any person(s) over the age of 18 intending to move into an existing household, may be rejected for the following:

- a. Management expressly reserves the right to deny any application on the basis that a court of competent jurisdiction has convicted an applicant of distribution (or possession) of a controlled substance as defined under applicable federal or state law.
- b. Management expressly reserves the right to deny any application on the basis that an applicant has a prior record of a criminal conviction(s) that involved harm to persons or to property, which would constitute a clear and present threat to health, or safety of other individuals.

IV. NAME ADDITION

Name addition is the adding of a person to a lease agreement with the permission of all parties concerned. The applicant will follow the criteria outlined above. To qualify for the full rental amount, the new applicant’s income will be combined with the current resident’s income. A roommate applicant with a score of 250 and above without a Landlord judgment/Tenant record is considered approved. Applicants who qualify with combined income will be required to re-qualify in the event that one of the leaseholders wishes to remove themselves from the lease agreement. The current resident will be required to complete a new application, unless they have lived with us for less than 6 months. In the event that the name addition is denied, each case will be reviewed individually and previous rental history will be evaluated.

V. NAME DELETION

Name deletion is the removal of a person from a lease agreement with the permission of all parties concerned. The remaining resident(s) on the lease must re-qualify under our current criteria if we originally combined the income of all applicants.
